SELF WATERING SYSTEM

Self-watering planters function using an ingenious process called capillary action.

Inside all self-watering pots is a removable compartment containing a waterbody from which plants can draw up water when needed.

Mops & Refills

Traditional cotton mops with sturdy plastic or metal sockets for heavy duty mopping. Sponge, strip and microfibre mops for mopping on both rough and delicate surfaces around the home.

Mops available with tough, long-lasting timber and metal handles for any job.
